“ Words will never be enough to tell the family how sorry I am for their loss. I had the please of working with Charlie at the VA and he was a wonderful friend, husband and father. I had the pleasure of seeing him at Richard Cheeks funeral. If I had only known it was the last time, I may have spent more time with him just reminiscing
IF I KNEW

If I knew it would be the last time
That I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep.

If I knew it would be the last time
that I see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for one more.

If I knew it would be the last time
I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise,
I would video tape each action and word,
so I could play them back day after day.

If I knew it would be the last time,
I could spare an extra minute to stop and say "I love you," instead of assuming you would KNOW I do.

If I knew it would be the last time
I would be there to share your day, Well I'm sure you'll have so many more,
so I can let just this one slip away.

For surely there's always tomorrow
to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything just right.

There will always be another day to say "I love you," And certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do?"

But just in case I might be wrong,
and today is all I get,
I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope we never forget.

Tomorrow is not promised to anyone,
young or old alike,

And today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight.

So if you're waiting for tomorrow,
why not do it today?
For if tomorrow never comes,
you'll surely regret the day,

That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish.

So hold your loved ones close today,
and whisper in their ear,
Tell them how much you love them and that you'll always hold them dear

Take time to say "I'm sorry," "Please forgive me," "Thank you," or "It's okay."
And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have no regrets about today.

“ My deepest condolences to the family please be assured that this is not God's purpose for to lose a dear loved one in death. When such a loss happens it is understandable one may ponder the question, Why? In times such as these I draw comfort from the following Bible passages that will supply needed comfort and hope: Psalms 34:18,19, Jeremiah 29:11,12 and Rev. 21:3,4.
