“ I often visited the AHS Class of '68 website and realized what an integral part of our class Ed was. I was only a passing acquaintance of Ed's, but his passing deeply affected me. I feel like my connection with the past will become a distant memory without his involvement. My condolences to his wife Sharman and his family. i will always remember Ed.

“ Ed did so very much keeping our High School Class at Abington together. He was amazing. We are all thankful to him. He really hung in there as long as he could. Rest In Peace Ed. You gave us your best. To his wife my condolences, and thanks for being there for him. I was in Atlanta the day he died. I could not believe that he had survived hospice all that time. Cancer must be defeated. Take Care.

“ Our heartfelt love and sympathy to Sharman and Ed's family for the loss of this dear and wonderful man we have all known and loved through the years. May God's blessing of peace and strength be with each of you. Although we have very sad emotions today, the happiest memories of times shared together in life with him will never be forgotten. Through high school, vacations, and just time spent together singing and laughing, the memories will be lasting and only full of joy.

“ Here is one of many photos of Ed doing what he loved so much - playing his 12-string and singing a Gordon Lightfoot song. We will miss his voice.

“ I've known Ed for 56 years. We sang in a quartet together from 7th to 12th grade. Ed was the glue that held the Abington class of 68 together thanks to his skills as web master. Ed was an important part of the last four reunions . Without his help the reunions would not have so well attended. I was indeed fortunate to spend five days with Ed and Sharman at their home in Canton. We shared old memories, learned the story of how he and Sharman met , fell in love and spent the next 49 years together! We talked for hours and I will treasure the time we got to share together. My world will be sadder without Ed Mullen in it! Ed was a good friend and I'll never forget him! My prayers are with Sherman as she goes through these trying times. May Ed Rest In Peace... “ So sad Ed's gone. We barely knew each other at Abington High, but over the past 15-20 years we've had wonderful email correspondences about music & Abington, and reunionized together every 5 years.

“ Thanks, daughter Jennifer, for mentioning the rest of Ed's family. You and your brother, Aaron, were dear to your Uncle Ed. I remember many times you'd sit close by to him while he played and sang The Pony Man for you. As his oldest sister, I remember our mother sending me into the yard to "watch your little brother." When living with us at Penn State his first year in college, he practiced endless hours in our house. I am reminded of a quote by Maya Angelou; she said: "I've lived long enough to know that people may forget what you said to them, forget what you did for them, but will never forget how you made them feel." None who knew Ed will forget how his music and wit made us feel.

“ Some of my fondest memories from when I was a kid are of the whole family getting together and listening to Uncle Ed and Uncle John play guitar while we all sang along with Uncle Ed. Forever in my heart. Aunt Sharman, I still giggle to myself when I think of the story you told about Uncle Ed singing, "If You Could Read My Mind" to you when he fell so smitten with you. Love and hugs to you! Your niece, Jeni

Jennifer Zampanti - December 23, 2019 at 11:12 AM

“ My Uncle Ed is also survived by his older sister, Antonia (Toni) Rosenbaum, her husband John, nieces Jennifer (Jeni) Zampanti and Amie Hershel, and nephews Aaron Rosenbaum and Ian Barksdale. We will treasure our memories of Ed. I, Ed's niece Jeni, wish love and hugs to my Aunt Sharman. May you find peace for yourself.

Jennifer Zampanti - December 22, 2019 at 10:28 PM

“ Dear Sharman,

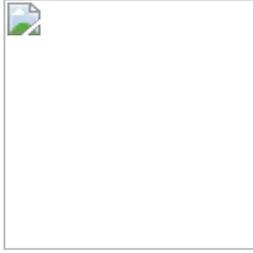

I have many good memories of Ed - your wedding reception at the tiny graduate school house in State College, the "Friends" duo and times we spent listening to our husbands perform, the good times at our houses in Maryland, and many more. My heart goes out to you.

“ Very beautiful song and a very nice way for us to find room in our hearts and keep the memory of Ed with us. Ed was the first to respond to my call when I reached out to become connected into the Lightfoot fans on the internet back in the day. Eventually I was fortunate enough to meet Ed in person and we became good friends. He was a lovely man and I will miss him.
