“ I met, or came to know Jerry July 23, 2108. Since that time I came to know a very noteable person in my "Schindler" Family history. After a few phone calls from his initial email to me, and many stories he exchanged with me I found in Jerry a unique and fascinating individual

From his days in Crafton, (Carnegie) PA, and living over the Schindler Inn, to his days at Ohio University (linebacker I think), to his home building he told me quite a few stories about his life and my Great Grand Uncle's family. He evidently lived a full life filled with good times and good love.

Let me share with you a few words of his from my first contact with Jerry: James Leo was my grandfather. He and my grandmother (Catherine McCaffrey) lived in Robinson Township just outside Carnegie, Pa. He worked for the Pa. RR as a conductor and they owned a Bar/Restaurant/Nightclub known as "Schindler's" later to be know as the Roslyn Inn. We lived in an apartment above it until I was about 6. Fun stories about that. I would really appreciate any information you can share with me. I am working on putting it in book form for our/my family.

Jerry, that is a book I would have loved reading. Rest in Peace my friend.

Till we meet again.
