“ One of my favorite memories of Uncle Sam is of him when he was preaching. He would walk so fast back n fourth in front of the pulpit sweating so hard, preaching to the top of his lungs he would pass out. He was so full of the Holy Spirit, I was very young but he still reached my heart then. It was such a blessing. A few years later he baptized me my cousin Rhonda and Debbie Heard. He later married Gary and I. He has always been so special to me and always will. I loved all the stories my mamma, Martha Hawkins told my sister Jackie and I of the little mischievous things he did growing up. Throwing a cat on her head from the roof when she came out side, throwing her in the creek to teach her to swim, her sister Ann had to save her. So many many memories I can't begin to write them all. He was an amazing man. I will miss him very very much.

“ When I was very young, Uncle Sam and Aunt Jo took me to the mountains to camp out by a river many times. I got to ride a horse for the first time with them and my cousin Stephanie Harbin. I was so glad that Uncle Sam married me and my wife, Jennifer Anderson-Cody, back in December 2008. He was a righteous man if ever one lived, and such a kind, gentle, loving person. I always smile as I think about him.
